SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY OFFERS PROGRAM FOR EDUCATORS OF THE DEAF

Syracuse University is offering a doctoral program in educational technology for educators of the deaf.

Sponsored by the U.S. Office of Education, Bureau of the Education of the Handicapped, the program is for teachers of the deaf who want to become competent in the development and administration of programs for the deaf using media and technology.

Formal courses, independent study, field work and practicums will be used to meet the objectives of the program.

Additional information can be obtained by writing to Dr. Donald Ely, Chairman, Department of Instructional Technology, Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York 13210.

BASEBALL SEASON GETS UNDERWAY

The Gallaudet baseball team opens its season on March 24 at D.C. Teachers College.

According to Marty Minter, the team is especially weak on pitching, but three more scrimmages are planned during spring recess to give the rookies some additional experience.

Four of last season's top hitters are back again this year and returning pitcher, Lory Kuschminder, who is credited with all three of Gallaudet's victories in last year's 3-15 season, is expected to carry the brunt of the pitching load.

In addition to a small squad of 16 players, the team has a taxing schedule of 17 games in 34 days.

Game schedule:

AROUND AND ABOUT

If work continues at the present rate, the installation of new utilities should be completed in June or July....The proceedings from the White House Conference on Aging, which did include some discussion on the problems of aging and deafness, were released last Monday....The 1972 National Convention of the Alexander Graham Bell Association will be held from June 28-July 1 in Chicago. Attention will be focused on both total communication and the oral/aural approach and other topics in developing the theme of the convention, "That the Deaf May Speak"....Synopsis of a number of events which featured the deaf through the arts will be appearing in a forthcoming issue of the Deaf American. Written by Teras B. Denis, the article will be called, "Silence: You Know It Isn't Always Golden"....On March 24, Dr. Gabriel Ofiesh will speak at the Graduate School Colloquium in room 213, Hall Memorial Building at 3:30 p.m. Dr. Ofiesh, who is the director of the Center of Educational Technology, College of Continuing Education, American University, will discuss "Education: the Year 2000."

REMINDER FROM CO-OP EXTENSION SERVICE

The next "Family Living, Child Development" class will be held on March 27 at 7:30 p.m. at the NAD building, 814 Thayer Avenue, Silver Spring, Maryland.

Two films, "Life with Baby" and "From Sociable Six to Noisy Nine," will be featured. Leslie Giordano will interpret.

SIGN LANGUAGE AT BCC HIGH SCHOOL

During its Experiment in Free Form Education, March 6-10, Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School offered course #47, Sign Language.

Larry Berke from our Sign Language Programs taught a small group of students basic signs and introduced them to American Sign Language.

After completing the week's work, the students who set up the course themselves said they wanted a sign language course in the program again next year.

PLEASE NOTE....

The last sentence of the article, "Social Work, A Career For the Deaf," which appeared in last week's ON THE GREEN should have read: "...and Miss Marie Davis, '72, the first placement from the preprofessional social work program at a school for the deaf, is doing her field work at MSSD."

NAD TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE

The National Association of the Deaf will hold an official open house at its new national headquarters on Sunday, April 9 and Monday, April 10, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

In its new quarters at 814 Thayer Avenue, Silver Spring, Maryland, the NAD will be able to centralize all of its activities and expand its role as a central clearing house for information on deafness.

According to NAD, a formal dedication is planned for the fall. The open house will coincide with the PRWAD conference to be held in Washington.

ON THE GREEN is published each week for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College by the Office of Alumni and Public Relations. Campus news is always welcome. Phone 3326 or TTY 4232.
